

monthly, I suppose because I would ~~not~~ turn around at the garage. When we got home it was 8 P.M. and no supper.
Helen said she could eat a dozen buns alright.

We had a large washing and I did the ironing in the P.M. also cut out your new yellow dress and black cape. Think it will be nice and catchy(?) Guess this is all for now as I will have to hurry and get ready then probably wait for pop. We are going to the style show some night. This week Helen has to write about it for one of her studies. Edith wants to thank you for her pocket book with love from us all. As ever Mother (Be sure to thank John for the candy)
